Money Active and in Good Demand.

Railroad and Government Bonds Firm.

THE DIVIDENDS OF THE YEAR.

stock market is as follows:—Some $75,000,000 is in process of payment on the part of various corporations. These dividends have naturally sought a place, and the very reasonable result has been an advance in railroad bonds and stocks. The large sum thus permitted to the country naturally adds to the buoyant movement securities, and explains the firmness that has addenly attached to the situation. The new year ubject of much hope among speculators, and dend disbursement, however, there are many ar-tificial manipulations to explain the activity of the market. These will find their sequence hereafter.

of the present year represent only $176,000,000 of is merely suspended. When we remember that there is more than 5,000.000,000 of indebtedas a mere bagatelle, especially in Europe. Two leading railroads which defaulted for the first time on their January coupons tothern, Southeastern and St. Louis, Chicago and Canada Southern, Chesapeake and Ohio, New York and Oswego Midiand, Missouri, Kansas and Texas; Atchison, Topeka and Santa Fe; Missouri River, Fort Scott and Gulf and Cleveland, Canada Southern and Detroit. A few other less important oads are also in default for the first time.

Money to-day loaned up to 1-16 per cent per diem, but subsequently went off to 6 per cent per annum and closed at that price. Foreign exchange closed up dull at 4.82½ a 4.83 for prime bankers' of days sterling and 4.86½ a 4.87 for demand. The outstanding loan certificates amount to $970,000, a decrease of $250,000. The trade movement was slow to-day, the unmvorable state of the weather tending to check commercial transactions very materially. On and decidedly lower—very little being taken at the decime. Corn was very quiet, but held steady at former prices. Oats continued in good demand and prices were higher. Whiskey was easier. Pork was without decided change, selling to some extent for future delivery at full prices. Lard was still very firm Groceries were quiet, but the market was firm Groceries were quiet, but the market was firm throughout. Cotton was quiet and unchanged for lots on the spot, but in fair demand and firmer for future. Petroleum was dull and nominal. Spirits of turpentine was quiet, but held with considerable firmness, while rosin was in demand, but at easier prices. Freights were quiet and in some instances were caster. Wool was in moderate demand and firm.

Ashea.—Receipts for the past three days 12 packages Market quiet. Small sales of pots at 6%0. a 7c. per lb. Pearls were nominal.

Goffen.—Transactions have been of no importance since last report, but the market was very firm. Lake quieted at 26%0. a 250., cash, and 25%0. a 250. for future delivery. The stock of ingot copper of all kinds was estimated at 5,00,000 lbs. thas been quiet to-day and the offerings from first hands light. Jealers, however, are firm in their views and demands—in some instances higher figures than those appended. Autopsy on the Body-Investigation, Neza a post-mortem examination on the body of William. Banta, the man who, on Thursday morning, was a post-morrem examination on the body of Williams. Banta, the man who, on Thursday morning, wasfound dead on the pavement in front of premises. Nos. 163 and 165 Canal street, there being suspictons that deceased had been beaten by Henry Hughes, the bartender. Banta had contusions and abrasions on the left side of the forehead, contusions about the nose and upper lip and fracture of the nassi bones; several small lacerated wounds of both lips, bloody serum dowing freely from the right ear, and a lacerated wound of the scalp at the back of the head, two inches long. On removing the scalp a large amount of blood was found extravassed on the occipital and right parietal bones; also, on the right temporal regions, a fracture of the skull was detected, which, or femoving the brain, was iound to extend from the middle of the occipital through the right parietal bone, and across the petrous portion of the temperal bone there was also a fracture of the ethmoid and sphenoid boses, and alarge amount of blood was found extravasted over the middle and posterior lobes of both hemispheres of the brain.

Death was due to compression of the brain from extravastion of blood, following fracture of the skull, the result of violunce.

Coroner Enckhoff empanelled a jury, who, after viewing the remains, were discharged till Monday next, when the investigation will take place.

The body of Banta, was delivered over to the relatives for interment.
